Strong push on e-commerce, better earnings outlook; upgrade to Buy

Upgrade to Buy We upgrade LS from Hold to Buy given its better earnings outlook and rerating potential due to its strong push on e-commerce business development. The company aims to have a mid-teen contribution from e-commerce revenue in FY16 (vs 10% in FY15). This is much higher than peers' low to mid single-digit revenue contribution in the last financial year. After our upward earnings revision, we forecast LS will post an 11% CAGR in core profit in FY16-17 (vs 4% previously). We raise our TP from HK$3.10 to HK$5.00, based on 13x FY16E P/E (9.5x FY16E P/E previously), which is still a 10% discount to peers. Potential catalyst: In-depth co-operation with third party e-commerce platforms.

Strong FY15 results Core profit jumped 21% YoY to HK$225m, 9% above our estimate. The earnings surprise was mainly due to a lower-than-expected SG&A expense ratio (54.5% vs our estimate of 55.6%). Revenue increased 3% YoY driven by 7.5% SSSG but partly offset by a 3% store decline. GM was stable at 67.2% (vs 67.1% in FY14). OP margin widened by 1.7pp YoY to 14.4%, primarily led by 286% growth in government incentives and a 0.9pp decrease in rental expenses ratio. The company announced the issuance of one bonus share for every ten existing shares.

E-commerce the key growth driver E-commerce revenue surged ~190% YoY to reach 10% of revenue in FY15 (vs 3% of revenue in FY14). The e-commerce business has two divisions: the transformation of the CNE brand into an O2O brand, and online business for the Le Saunda brand. In FY15, the company closed 57 CNE offline stores and opened eight new CNE O2O stores. The business was profitable with OP margin estimated at mid-teens. In FY16, the company plans to add open 30 CNE O2O stores and speed up the development of Le Saunda MEN's online business. The company is also looking for more in-depth co-operation with e-commerce platforms. Management targets an e-commerce revenue proportion as a percentage of total revenue to reach mid-teens in FY16.

Accelerating store expansion Linea Rosa brand was established in FY12. The brand was profitable with its sales per store the highest among the company's brand portfolio in FY15. The company plans to accelerate Linea Rosa's network expansion in FY16 by adding another 50 stores (52 stores in FY15). For the Le Saunda brand, the company also aims to open 30 new stores mainly in second-tier cities. The company's store expansion has been more prudent than peers over the last four financial years. It also has less stores for its core brands compared to its peers' major brands of similar positioning. We do not expect the accelerated expansion to increase the risk of cannibalization.

1Q16 trading update SSS has been recovering in Apr and May from a very weak Mar (~10% decline) due to the late CNY in Feb. We estimate SSS could be flat to slightly negative in 1Q16. Management expects better SSS in 2H16 through the launching of new products.

Earnings upgrade We raise our FY16/17 core profit estimates by 18%/23% mainly to reflect a lower SG&A expenses ratio and higher revenue assumptions. In FY16, we expect the company to deliver 11% core profit growth driven by 60% growth in e-commerce revenue and 8% revenue growth (at 3% SSSG) from physical stores.

Downside risks The company fails to meet its e-commerce growth target; new store performance below expectation.
